

WHAT IS TO BE.

As Shown by the Election in New Hampshire Yesterday.

The Republicans Elect Their Governor by 1,500 Majority.

And Secure a Majority on Joint Ballot in the Legislature.

Which Secures a Republican Senator as Successor to Cragin.

Meeting of the Republican Central Committee Relative to the City Election.

A Convention to Be Held April 6—Primaries, Etc.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

TALLY ONE!

Concord, N. H., March 14.—Returns from sixty-nine towns and wards give Collier 11,931; May, 10,572; Kendall and scattering, 92. In 1873, the same towns and wards gave the Republicans 11,150; the Democrats 10,500. Prohibition, 1,500. Republican net gain, 671.

Estimated returns from 150 towns show that the Republicans are still gaining.

Boston, Mass., March 14.—A Concord special to the Post (Dem.) concedes a Republican victory in New Hampshire, a majority in both branches of the Legislature, and the election of Cheney by the people by a small majority; but as was the case last year, later returns may materially affect the results. One hundred and sixty-two towns and wards give Cheney 27,730; May, 25,226; Kendall and scattering, 3,531; Republicans, 26,583; Democrats, 25,963; and scattering, 477; Republican net gain, 2,118.

Concord, March 14.—The Republicans are confident that they have made a clean sweep, and are very jubilant. There is no doubt that they have elected a majority of Senators, and they claim a majority in the House of Reps. The Democrats do not concede that the House is Republican. E. H. Boutwell, the Republican Committee-writer, says that the Republicans elected nine of the twelve Senators, and that they will have a majority of 20 in the House. He thinks Cheney's majority will be at least 100.

Concord, N. H., March 14.—A. m.—A summary of all returns received up to 10 o'clock is as follows: 192 towns and wards give Cheney 31,761; May, 28,956; Kendall and scattering, 3,101; Republicans, 29,767; Democrats, 28,803; and scattering, 491. Republican net gain, 2,552.

A meeting of Representatives at the same hour is to be adjourned until 10 a.m. to receive the publicans and 129 Democrats. Last year the same towns elected 149 Republicans and 122 Democrats, which shows a Democratic net gain of 27. The Republicans have a majority in the House last year was 11. There is no doubt that Cheney is elected Governor by the people, and the Republicans claim that the net gain will be higher than last year.

Concord, N. H., March 15.—The Republicans claim eight out of twelve Senators. The Democrats claim a majority in the Council. The Republicans are jubilant, and the Democrats are somewhat less so. Last year the counties were five Republicans and five Democrats. With the exception of the House, the states of which can only be determined by further returns, and the Council, which is doubtful, the Republicans have made a clean sweep.

THE CITY ELECTION.
MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Yesterday afternoon the city members of the Central Republican Executive Committee of Cook County met in headquarters, corner of Lake and Clark streets, in accordance with a call previously made, for the purpose of consulting as to the feasibility of calling a convention to nominate city officers. The following-named gentlemen were present: J. H. C. Burrows, A. C. Burrows, W. C. Phillips, H. B. Brayton, J. H. Draper, C. Mamer, Alvin Salisbury, A. D. White, and F. M. Ryan.

John H. Clough called the meeting to order, and Justice Salisbury selected Secretary.

Mr. Clough moved that they proceed to an adjournment of the meeting of the City of Chicago to nominate a general ticket of city officers to be held on Thursday, the 6th of April, the primaries to be held Wednesday, the 5th.

Mr. H. H. Hayley thought that the Convention might be held on Saturday instead of Thursday, and the primaries on Friday.

Mr. Hayley moved that as the time suggested by Mr. Clough was but two days after the town election had been held, the interim might be too short on account of the excitement engendered.

Mr. Clough stated that he made the motion in order to give the sense of the meeting, as they had not time then to fix judges for the primaries. Mr. Hayley said that the call for the town election had been held, the interim might be too short on account of the excitement engendered.

Mr. Clough moved that they proceed to an adjournment of the meeting of the City of Chicago to nominate a general ticket of city officers to be held on Thursday, the 6th of April, the primaries to be held Wednesday, the 5th.

Mr. Hayley thought that it would not be safe to select from the different wards to be suggested by the members of the Committee from the several wards to they report their names, and those of holding out at another meeting to be held hereafter. Carried.

The same gentleman also moved that the representatives should be the basis of one delegate to every 200 Republican votes, being governed by the vote at the last election for County Treasurer.

Justice Salisbury moved to amend by allowing one delegate to every 150 Republican votes, and one additional for every 75 voters, or fraction over in a ward.

Mr. Clough moved that judges to be selected from the different wards be suggested by the members of the Committee from the several wards to they report their names, and those of holding out at another meeting to be held hereafter.

Mr. Clough's motion was then carried.

Mr. Clough moved that judges to be selected from the different wards be suggested by the members of the Committee from the several wards to they report their names, and those of holding out at another meeting to be held hereafter.

Mr. Clough thought that it would not be safe to take the last election for Treasurer as a basis, as Republican votes were then for Mr. Wolff's vote. His thought they could not get a basis in that election.

Mr. Clough's motion was then carried.

GEN. WEBSTER.

Affectionate Tribute of Respect by the Literary Club.

Meeting of the Military and Civil Friends of the Deceased.

Arrangements for the Funeral--The First Regiment.

LITERARY CLUB.

THE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

The Chicago Literary Club had a meeting yesterday afternoon in the same room, to take action regarding the death of Gen. J. D. Webster. D. L. Shewell, of the First Regiment, read the resolutions, and stated the object of the meeting.

Gen. E. L. C. was rejoiced to know that the Club had thought fit to come together and perpetuate in its archives a memorial of so valuable a member, and moved that a committee be appointed for the purpose of drafting resolutions expressive of the worth of their associate and the grief of the Club at his death.

In accordance therewith, Messrs. Larned and Huntington and the Rev. Mr. Chamberlain were appointed such Committee and retired. During the Committee's absence, the Club was addressed by Mr. L. M. Kirkland, Mr. L. C. Clark, and Mr. L. C. Clark.

Mr. Kirkland thought it would be appropriate to procure the portrait of Gen. Webster, and moved that the Club should have it hung in the Club-room. The Club voted to change whatever in his conduct was now in his power, that the exertions used would be fruitless, and that he never enjoyed better health in his life. The Club's appetite he evinced proved the assertion. His diet was not restricted, and the usual goal of fare, but consisted of the usual, satisfying food, which he ate with a zest somewhat surprising.

GEORGE SMITH. The man who acted as an assassin at the execution of General Guelph, was among the applicants for the pardon of ex-convict. He was very anxious for the day, and referred triumphantly to the manner in which "worked" of "White."

MURDER.

A BRUTAL SLAUGHTER AT QUARRY, ILL. Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

QUARRY, ILL., March 14.—At an early hour this morning the police were notified that a murder had been committed at a house of prostitution, and upon investigation, it was found that an inmate named Anna Ferris had been wounded to death. She was a young girl, about 18 years old, and was being horribly treated. The man had been to the Opera-House last night, and returned home about 10 o'clock. About the same time, George Adams, a young man about 19 years of age, went into his room and gained admittance, and it is supposed he was there until about half after the crime had been committed. He left his overcoat, his vest, and pocketbook in the room. Notwithstanding the young Adams' efforts to get out of the way, the police were fully as active as the assassin. He started north, taking the railroad track on the outskirts of the city, and reached Quincy, Ill., about 10 o'clock this morning. There he informed every station which he called to fill a brave and distinguished soldier, an efficient and upright man.

Proceeded with a fine mission and liberal nature, he was a man of a warm heart and a good nature. In his spiritual growth he was far in advance of his contemporaries.

The Executive Committee, as far as the tribute to the memory of our lamented associate, a cause to be regretted, read at some length of the Club, and that the members of the Club will be gratified to know that the deceased

THE CENTENNIAL MEETING.

CHICAGO, March 14.—It seems a great pity that the Centennial mass-meeting to be held at Farwell Hall this week should have been appointed for Wednesday evening, that being the day of the meeting of the Board of Trade.

THE CITY.

GENERAL NEWS.

H. S. Wells, nominated Monday as President of the Y. M. C. A., declines to run against Mr. J. V. Farwell, who heads the regular ticket.

The item in yesterday's TRADE in reference to James T. Porter, said to have been arrested for vagrancy, was slightly incorrect. Mr. Porter was arrested by mistake, and was not charged with vagrancy.

The temperature yesterday, as observed by Manasse, optician, 88 Madison street, (TARUNA Building), was at 8 a. m., 38 degrees; 10 a. m., 36; 12 m., 40; 4 p. m., 45; 8 p. m., 40. Barometer, 28.2; 29.45; 8 p. m., 29.35.

About 8 o'clock last evening Officer Bell recovered the body of a boy named Frank Conner, aged 6 years, who fell into Ogden slip at the bridge over Archer Avenue during the afternoon and drowned. The body was taken to the family residence, No. 85 Butler street, and the Coroner notified.

A religious monomaniac (colored) awaits the action of the County Physician at the Madison Street Hospital. He is a man of the type of such a character as will bring him beyond redemption, and that his Satanic malice is in constant pursuit. He will be taken before the County Court to-day and his case inquired into.

A Scotch paper, the Five Points, says that the number of the Fishermen lost last fall is about to be closed with the handsome sum of $7,000 sterling, or nearly $30,000, of which $30,000 were received from a few New Scotland in Chicago.

The Committee to whom were referred the resolutions of residents along the line of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway in regard to the construction of the new bridge over the river, at the several towns between Chicago and Wanigan last yesterday afternoon in the office of Warren, Keeley & Co., No. 102 Washington street, and prepared the draft of a resolution to be presented to the officers of the road, to be signed by the residents of the line along the line.

MAILED yesterday M. E. church.

A large audience assembled in the auditorium of the new Halsted Street M. E. Church, No. 782 Halsted street, to witness the opening of the church. The building is a fine structure, with stone trimmings, mostly Gothic in architecture, and excellently well calculated for the purposes for which it was built. The lower floor is divided into three sections, and the auditorium extends to the north end of the building, leading to the auditorium, which is plain and neat in appearance, and withal larger in dimensions than the choir and organ room, most pretentious. It is surrounded on three sides by a large, deep gallery that can be divided at will into separate apartments, each excluded from the auditorium by swinging panels. When the organ room and organ gallery will present a better appearance than one would think possible from the expenditure.

L. C. Hines, County Treasurer, last evening went through the thousand applications he has received for positions in his office, and selected himself from whom he expected to make a choice. He arranged his work to make a choice several days ago that he could find him a place. It is further stated that he is the independent and uncompromising officer, who, to his knowledge, has come to Chicago from Manistee, Mich., only at the request of his father. When he reached the office, he was told that he was not wanted, and that he was to be sent to Keweenaw, Mich., to work for the Comptroller Hayes to the effect that (he the Comptroller) has been very successful in borrowing money, and that the outlook for the East for the time is credit is improved; the cause is unknown.

Balding-Inspector Bailey is angry because the architect managing the hotel in the construction of the Grand Central Hotel, on Wabash avenue, where the society debtors, in Madison, die to him, has been engaged to him, and he has not been paid him.

At the examination held yesterday Elder Justice presided. The Rev. Dr. John Robinson led in prayer, and the pastor, the Rev. Henry Hill, followed in an address of welcome. Dr. O. L. Tiffany followed in a few words, concluding the services with the singing of their own words.

The statement of the Trustees was then read by the Secretary. It showed the cost of the building and furniture to have been $31,000 which was to be paid in 1875, and the premium for insurance of $211.75, and to the premium on loans and bills, $38.74 make the total $31,394.55. The $18,00 on the east side of the account is due to the $13,000 and a subscription list of $6,336.94, reducing the actual debt to $7,415.55. The $18.00 loan is a permanent one, and bears interest at 6 per cent, and the amount due thereon has been rented for $2,610, and in Trustees hope they will soon produce at least $4,000.

The Rev. Dr. Hatfield then started a subscription among the audience. M. G. Dean, Mrs. Dean, T. W. Harvey, and Mr. Jennings headed the list with $100 each, and others followed in smaller amounts until about $1,000 had been raised.

A song from the Rev. R. S. Canine closed the exercises, and the audience adjourned to partake of a delicious luncheon which had been spread by the hand of the caterers.

READING WOMEN'S REEF.

The incorporators and friends of the Reading Women's Ref. met yesterday at the new building situated at the corner of Indiana avenue and Thirty-first street, by giving a little entertainment in the chapel, which was tastefully decorated with evergreen boughs. A full description of the building is superlative; it is having been described in these columns several times. The Rev. Mr. Estabrook, president, was present at the organ, and gave some pretty appropriate including "The Song of the Shirt" and others.

Letters were read from the Rev. L. T. Chamberlain and the Rev. J. M. Gibson expressing regret at their absence.

The Rev. Brooks Herder, Dr. Estabrook King, and others made a few remarks complimentary to the good work and the success of the institution.

The names of the Home song "The Home for the Poor" in their best manner, and the meeting adjourned.

THE LATE ALEXANDER MURKIN.

Brace'd the late Alexander Murkine, a retired sailor, by the reception of a telegram from Rome, Italy, announcing the death, Monday, of Mr. Alexander Murkine, of this city. Mr. Murkine had resided in this city and in this country when quite young. About 1845 he settled in Milwaukee, where he resided until 1870, when he moved to this city, where he was engaged in the grain business. Last summer, accompanied by his wife, he left for a tour of the Continent. A day or two previous to his departure he was made the subject of a good deal of talk at the Sherman House, which was largely attended by his friends. His oldest daughter is the wife of H. M. Curtis, and the oldest son, George W., is a student at the Law School. He leaves for Europe today. Mr. Murkine died of the malarial fever, to which all foreigners are subjected on their first visit to the Eternal City. His wife is a widow, a devoted husband, a true friend, and an estimable citizen. He served acceptably as a Director of the Board of Trade.

CITY FINANCES.

It was stated yesterday that the banking institutions of the city would send representatives to a meeting to be held to consider the request made by the Mayor for a loan to the city. The meeting was held in the Cashier's office of the Third National Bank yesterday afternoon, and there were present J. Irving Pearce, of the Third; W. F. Conover, of the Union; L. J. Gage, of the Bank of America; and G. F. Smith, of the Fifth; Sol A. Smith, of the M. S. L. & T. Co., and one or two of the moneyed fraternity, while the city was represented by His Honor.

After the various banks had dropped in one by one, Mayor Colvin laid before them the state of the case, and showed that the city needed money very much, but needed the indorsements of the Chicago banks, and even then the Mayor, because with the latter he had no doubt that the city would be effected in New York, which would be impossible, or at least difficult, without.

After the meeting had been in session some time, the Mayor had laid his case before the various banks, and was occupied by the Mayor in making his statement, and in answering questions, the head of the city withdrew, and shortly afterward the meeting dispersed.

On account of the small attendance it was decided to postpone any definite action until to-day, when another meeting will be called to informally the question which had called them together, and all agreed that the city's credit must be maintained.

On the 15th of this month, a lawyer of this city, has prepared a very long opinion on the question of the legality of the city's certificate on which the Comptroller is attempting to lay claim. This document was freighted to Mr. Hayes yesterday. It is, as may be supposed, to the effect that the certificates are unquestionably legal, valid, and binding on the city.

THE COUNTY BUILDING.

The County Treasurer yesterday received the Collector's books of the towns of Barrington, Palos, and Schermerhorn, with whatever loose change they happened to have in their exchequer.

The North Town Collector closed his office yesterday until April 1, and announced that he would not receive any further taxes on real es-

ate. Those who have not paid had better make up their minds to be advertised and pay costs.

J. E. Bronius was tried in the County Court yesterday, charged with being an habitual drunkard, and was found guilty, and J. A. Ois was appointed his conservator under bond for $20,000. Here is work for some of the temperance reform associations.

The County Clerk yesterday ordered special elections in the following towns, to be held on the 21st instant: Northfield, Elmhurst, and Bellwood, one justice; New Trier, one justice; Hanover, one constable; Northfield and Elmhurst, one justice.

The drawing of W. F. Storey as a Grand Juryman, yesterday, was at 8 a. m., 38 degrees; 10 a. m., 40; 4 p. m., 45; 8 p. m., 40. Barometer, 28.2; 29.45; 8 p. m., 29.35.
